

James Tarpey

I'm a full stack developer in Bristol, England. I design and code beautifully simple things. I'm currently a Frontend Developer at BoomBoard.

Employment

• Frontend Developer

Data Cubed → BoomBoard, November 2021 → Present

- Design, build and support BoomBoard application and website
- Grow development team and coach junior staff
- Collaborate with clients and the tech and commercial teams

• Software Engineer

Bristol City Council, January 2021 → November 2021

- Design, build and support council digital services
- Shape development processes and standards
- Collaborate with web and user experience teams

• Senior User Experience Designer

Bristol City Council, January 2020 → January 2021

- Lead frontend development, content design and web accessibility
- Build and maintain design system for consistent service design
- Define web standards and work with partners to meet them

• Digital Delivery Lead

Bristol City Council, May 2019 → January 2020

- Act as Scrum Master and facilitate Agile ceremonies
- Define development roadmap with stakeholders
- Coach development team to support personal goals

• Product Owner

Bristol City Council, September 2018 → May 2019

- Set priorities and write user stories with project leads
- Bring together stakeholders to define product features
- Facilitate demos and manage product strategy and backlogs

• Web Editor and UX Designer

Bristol City Council, July 2017 → September 2018

- Identify user needs through interviews and data analysis
- Build website prototypes and interactive wireframes
- Carry out user testing in collaboration with development team

Contact

jamestarpey.com

github.com/tarpey

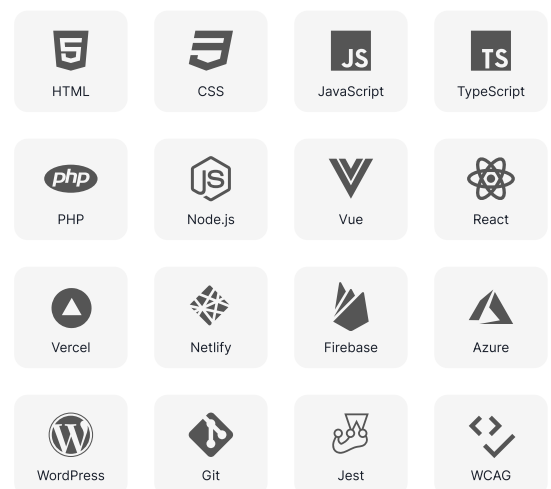

linkedin.com/in/jamestarpey

hello@jamestarpey.com

07738820584

Skills

Development

Design

Other

